

Self-Funding SYMPOSIUM

Manage your Health Plan as you would Manage your Business

Self-Funding is now considered a proven method for businesses to better manage their health plan costs.

With passage of health care reform (ACA), interest in this financial arrangement has never been higher.

This symposium – July 12 – will help employers, brokers and consultants cut through the confusion of self-funding.

- Employers with 25 or more employees are encouraged to attend.
- 3 hours of life and health CE credits available for licensed agents.
